"Atlantic View" is a distinctive and highly versatile country residence set within approximately five acres of mature grounds, offering privacy, space, and far-reaching potential in one of the North Coast's most desirable settings. Surrounded by open countryside yet within easy reach of Bushmills, Giants Causeway and the stunning North Coast, the property enjoys a peaceful rural atmosphere complemented by distant sea views and beautifully established gardens.

Extending well beyond the main residence, the estate is enhanced by a superb range of substantial outbuildings, workshops, and garaging, offering endless possibilities for a prospective purchaser. From a small holding or equestrian property to light commercial use or tourism opportunities such as holiday accommodation, glamping pods, or a lifestyle retreat, Atlantic View offers a rare combination of scale, flexibility, and location seldom available in today's market.

The main house itself offers generous proportions and a wealth of character, providing comfortable family accommodation alongside impressive entertaining space. While the property would benefit from some modernisation, it presents a fantastic opportunity for a purchaser to put their own stamp on a home of real scale and charm. A welcoming entrance hall sets the tone with its generous proportions and traditional detailing, leading to a series of well-appointed reception rooms, each with its own appeal—from cozy evenings by the stove to more formal gatherings around feature fireplaces. The heart of the home opens into bright, sun-filled spaces, including a striking sunroom and conservatory that seamlessly connect indoor living with the surrounding gardens and patios, capturing peaceful views across the mature grounds and towards the distant coastline. The well-equipped kitchen and extensive utility area provide both practicality and flexibility, while upstairs, five bedrooms and a family bathroom offer ample accommodation, complemented by an elevated balcony area ideal for taking in the tranquil setting and sea air.
